JUNE 7, 2019 • BLOG

Rob Georg is one of those talented artist, who got their own style. He uses his guitar to create enchanting music, actually he puts life into music through his guitar notes. His previous releases has done exceptionally well across different music platforms. And now he has come up with a fresh music video for his track "Time for Some Ink".

Before moving forward to the track let's have a glance of artist's life and music career. Throughout his life, music has been Rob's constant companion, comforting him in gloomy times and inspiring him in happy times. He has grown up with the horses as he is highly skilled in cutting horses. For the past 10 years, he has successfully showed Cutting Horses in Europe and the USA and was on the board of the National Cutting Horse Association of Germany for 6 years, most of this time as president.

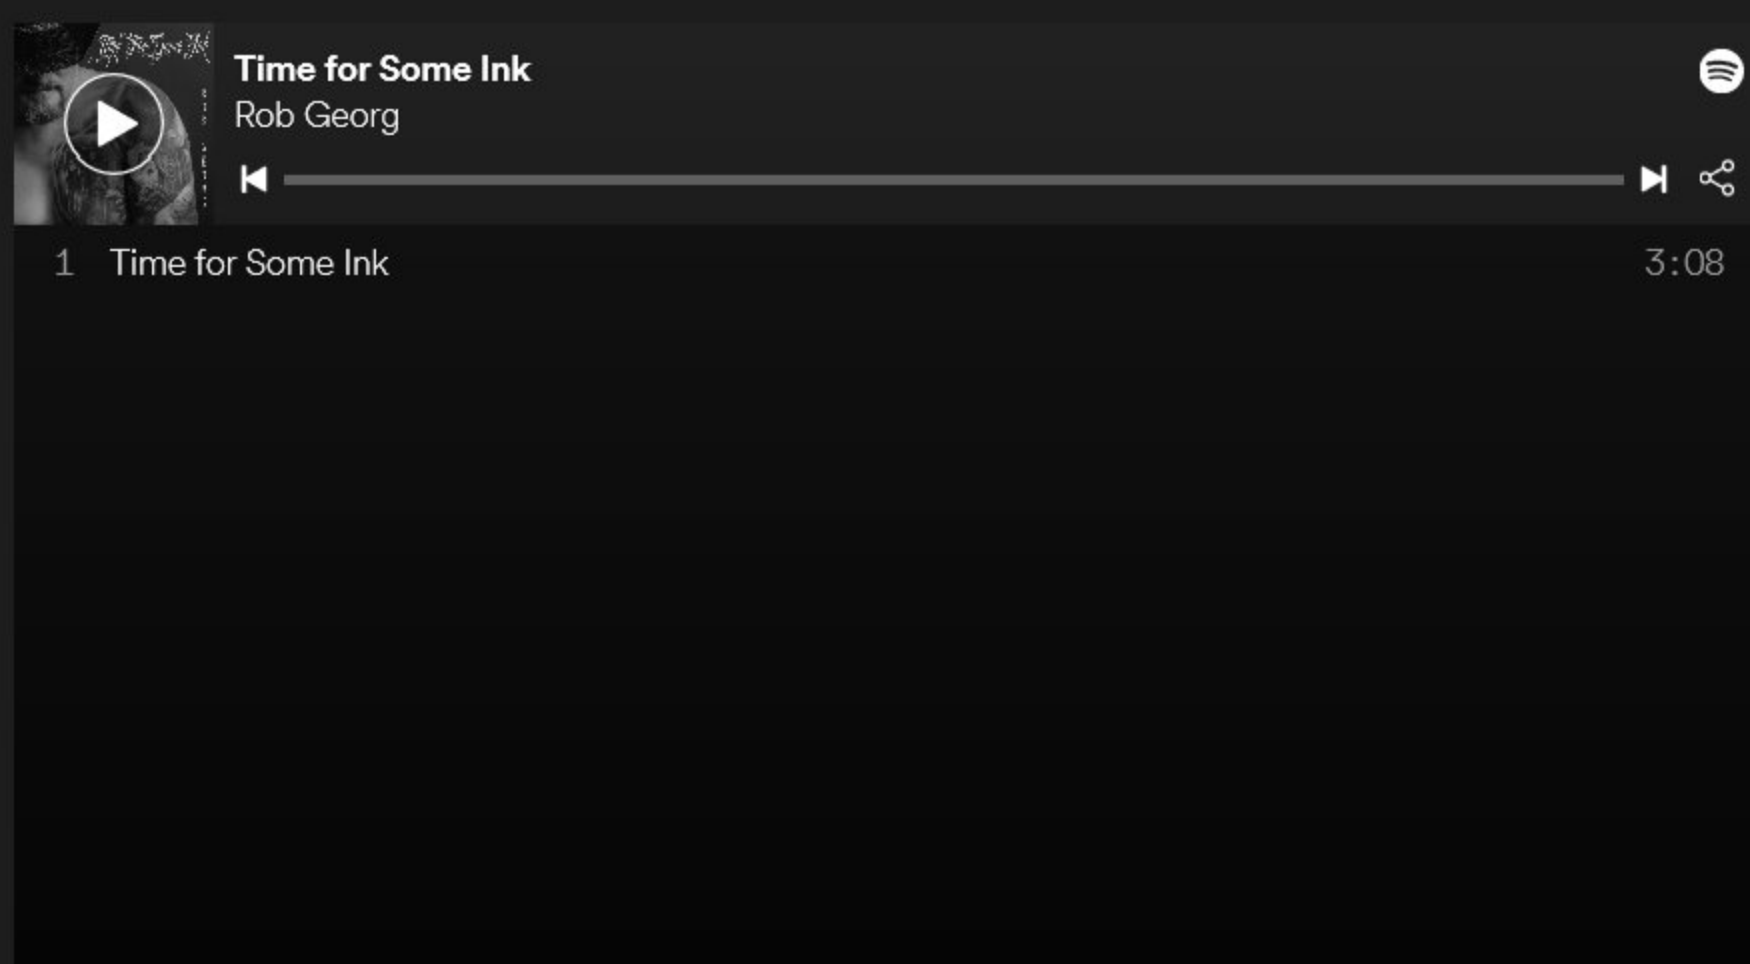

And then he proved to be equally successful in music as well. His recent releases been appreciated by music critics and fans as well. Now coming back to the music video of "Time for Some Ink".

That is surely a powerful track, The song starts with a melodious and engaging tone. You will feel compelled to listen to the track. And with Rob George's dynamic and inspiring voice and strong vocal projection it's a powerhouse till the very end. The track is simply done and not overly complex. The chorus is impressive, the pitch range varies, making it rich and engaging.

The song definitely is professional and creative. We find it extremely good and the singer has perfectly proved his talent and the music, lyrics and production everything has been done exceptionally well. Video is surely upto the mark, matching with the lyrics. And the direction of this music video is done professionally as well. If you are a tattoo lover, you will definitely enjoy it more than others.

Overall its a fun listening to the music and I am sure you would put it to repeat mode. It's also available on
