Rob Georg Releases New Single "Time For Some Ink"

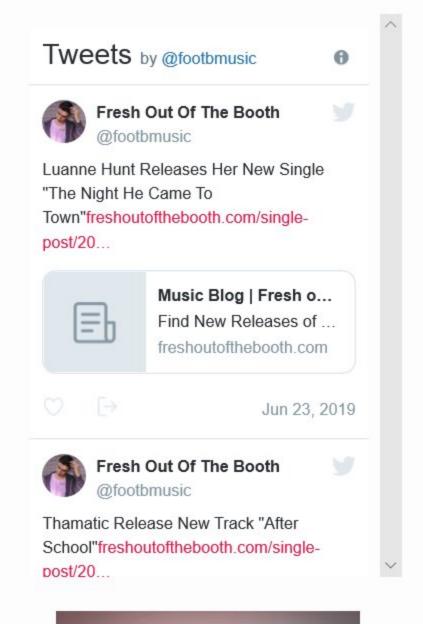

June 9, 2019 | Noah Penza

Rob Georg has released a new track entitled Time For Some Ink.

Rob Georg's new track, Time For Some Ink, details his love and obsession for tattoos. The choice of lyrics cleverly convey and express what tattoos mean to the artist, addressing that the tattoos show who he has loved and who he has lost and his journey. Even though there is an obvious pain that comes with getting a tattoo, his addiction overrides the pain and sways him to get inked up even more, as stated in his lyrics towards the end of the second verse. This southern rock anthem is a hit and comes accompanied with a music video which you can view here:
