Rob Georg

Wallduern, Germany – June 8, 2019 – Country music has always been regarded as an American sound bred in the southern regions, but if fans have learned anything from the likes Keith Urban, Country Music can come up from anywhere in the world. Which leads us to the German cowboy himself, Rob Georg.

Like many, Rob Georg wrote out a bucket list and on top of catching a plane from Germany to Nashville to work on his vocals. In the middle of crossing that item off the top of his list, he met singer-songwriter, Kristin K. Smith. Encouraged by her words and moved by her actions, Rob Georg started to record and publish music. Under her guidance, and with the help of a handful of other talented folks, Rob Georg started down a musical path and never looked back. That was in June 2018. Now he's seven songs deep, including his latest releases, the country ballad "Ghost" and his masterpiece of Southern Rock "Time For Some Ink".

Very few would imagine a cowboy from Germany, but Rob Georg just doesn't wear the label, he lives the lifestyle. He spent the first chapter of his life as a professional equestrian athlete. Today he is just a simple man with a song in his heart and on his lips that lives on a ranch with his nine dogs, 50 sheep, and almost two dozen horses. His songs are a reflection of the life he leads and the stories he lives to tell. All in true country fashion.

"Carry The Wind", "Dust", "Ghost" and "Time For Some Ink" were the first of many heading fans' way in 2019 and they aren't the last. In the coming months, Rob Georg plans on releasing four more new singles including "Sunsets At The Ranch", "Beast Made Of Steel", "Harvest Moon Heart" and "When I Come Home For Christmas" between July and November 2019. With his previous releases, he was able to land in rotation on one of Europe's largest internet radio stations, Raute Musik FM. He is also charting in the US, currently in the Top 5 on National Radio Hits Charts with "This Ain't My First Rodeo," and has cracked the Top20 on the Top100 Radio Charts, the Top5 on the Country Internet Main Radio Chart, and holds position #1 on the US Western Region AC Radio Charts. Rob has also been featured in Stereo Stickman, The Bandcamp Diaries, and more. The NMW Magazine is showing him on the cover in June 2019. So there is no telling how far his new releases will go.
